

Snowman

I was a snowman once
More snow than man
After they ate my carrot nose
And took my eyes of stone.

And then they further plundered me,
Taking my scarf and mittens,
Exposing me to sun and heat
That left me much diminished.

But I survived until I died
When winter changed to spring.
In summer I'll be drops of rain,
In winter snow again.
