

Eight Going on Nine

A phrase recalled from childhood:

Eight going on nine.

As if the eight were not enough

To place the kid in time.

The phrase is almost always used

For kids from born to ten.

Toward the end it's understood

The kid is going on dead.